Dear Parents

School has always initiated to provide a platform for the students to showcase their creativity and talent in a fun, interactive learning experience. We're elated to announce that SANSKRITIANS have an opportunity to participate in the prestigious Summer Book Writing Festival, organized by BriBooks and Education World, in partnership with Disney International HD and NDTV. During this festival, children will have the incredible opportunity to learn book writing skills from globally renowned educators, authors, and storytellers and will have the chance to write, publish, and sell their own books and even win fantastic awards.

- Participation in the event is completely FREE for all students!
- To register your child visit : <https://www.camp.bribooks.com/india/student> before 9 pm , May 15th 2023.
- After registration, you will receive all the necessary details and instructions on participation, including how to write a book.
- Act now for transformative book writing, publishing and entrepreneurial experience for your ward.
